

DKF PRÆSENTERER NAIL OPEN COPENHAGEN 2019 OG DM I NEGLE 2019

General rules

1. The competitions are open to those who satisfy the requirements and applies to the competition properly.
2. The competitor must respect all rules and manners of competition.
3. A competitor will be disqualified if they intentionally or recklessly applies to a lower division than the actual division they belong in.
4. A competitor will be disqualified and banned from all future competitions if they are caught cheating at the time of any of the competitions.
5. Competitors must specify the division for each classification they are entering when the application form is completed. Once the competitor has registered they can not change divisions without direct permission from the Nail open supervisor.
6. The competitor must enter the highest division they qualify for.
7. The competition's organization is not responsible for verifying that each competitor enters into the correct division.
8. There are no refunds of competition fees
9. All photos and videos taken by DKF and the competition's personnel or hired contractors are the sole property of DKF and the competition's organization to be used in whatever fashion deemed appropriate by them without compensation to the competitors and models.
10. Competitors must use a live model and arrange for the model themselves.
11. Competitor and Models must be at least 18 years old for divisions 1,2&3.
12. DKF is not responsible for any competitor not adhering to or understanding all of the rules.
13. There is no smoking or drinking Alcohol allowed on the competition floor
14. No mobile phones, tablets or computers of any kind on the competition floor during the competition for both the competitor and the model. No Apple iWatch or Samsung watches that can be used to communicate are allowed.
15. No outside communication with competitors while competitions are going on.
16. Competitors may not be on the competition floor until the floor is open for set up. If the competitor is competing in the following competition, you may leave your table set up but must clear the floor until the arena judge opens it up for the next competitions set up
17. Competitors not understanding English or the language of the hosting country must provide their own translator.
18. Translators must read over the rules with the competitor prior to the competition briefing to assure the competitor understands all of the rules
19. The translator must be present during the competition briefing and stay just outside the competition floor in a designated area during the competition in the event that they are needed for communication with the competitor.

20. Only competitors and models are allowed to enter into the competition floor. However, translators are allowed to enter the competition floor when the communication with the competitors is necessary and also during the briefing.
21. Each competition will have a briefing 15 minutes prior to the start of the competition.
22. All competitors and models must be present for the briefing.
23. Once the briefing of a competition begins, the competitor may not touch the models nails until the competition begins. If anyone or any competitor touches the models nails after the briefing and before the competition begins, there will be a 5 point deduction from their final score.
24. Models nails will be checked by the arena judge after the briefing to be certain no application has been done prior to the start of the competition.
25. Competitors allowed to prepare the natural nail prior to the competition. But absolutely no application work of any kind until the competition officially begins.
26. If it is decided by the floor head arena judge that application work has been done on the model prior to competition, the competitor will receive a 5 point deduction to their final score.
27. Competitors are allowed to set up table, products and supplies during the competition briefing.
28. Competitors or models may not go into their kits once the competition has started.
29. All products being used during the competition must be clearly labeled. Hand written labels are acceptable.
30. Competitors must bring all of the necessary electrical supplies, including UV/LED lamps, extension cords, adapters, electric files and table lights.
31. Each competitor will be provided one electrical outlet.
32. Competitors must provide their own products
33. Strictly no molds that create a well shaped nail may be used for any of the competitions.
34. Once the allotted time is up the competitors must immediately stop working and put their hands up. The model must stand up and get in line for judging immediately.
35. Competitors caught touching their models hands after the time has been called will receive a 10 point deduction to their final score.
36. Models that have any tattoos on the lower arms or anywhere on their hands must adhere to the rule of having them covered prior to judging.
37. Models may not wear any jewelry on their hands or wrist.
38. When instructed, competitors are responsible for getting their model to the judging arena and making certain the model understands that they must be judged by all of the judges before leaving the competition arena.
39. Models must not leave the judging area until they have been completely judged.
40. Any model that leaves the judging arena prior to being completely judged will be disqualified.

41. In the event of a tie or of any disputes to the scoring places first through ten, the head judge will make the decision.
42. The head judges decision is final
43. Score sheets will be made available for all competitors
44. In the event that a competition only has 4 competitors, only 1st place trophy will be awarded.
45. The competition must have a minimum of 3 competitors in it.
46. The use of any type of fire or heating devices, which can ignite that are used directly on the model during the application or curing process is prohibited on the competition floor for all of the competitions.
47. The competitor is allowed to bring a small trolley or something that can be used as an extra table to put extra items on top when necessary due to small tables that are sometimes provided.
48. The competitor can put all the needed items in a open box that be placed on top of the competitors nail kit.
49. There is absolutely no touching of the models once the models are lined up in the Q for judging.
50. Once the briefing begins the models hands must be on the table and the competitors hands must be placed on their laps under the table.

Division rules

Division I

For competitors who have never placed 1st in any *Hands – on Internationally recognized competition in Division 1.

Division II

For competitors who have placed 1 st in any *Hands-on Internationally recognized competition division 1, and placed 2nd or 3rd for division 2.

Division III

For competitors that have placed 1st in any *Hands-on Internationally recognized competition division 2.

*Hands-on Competitions

Any Competition where the competitor is creating the nails during the time of competition and not done prior to the competition.

Team Trophy

Team trophy is top 3 of the hands on competitions. To qualify for the Team trophy there must be a minimum of 3 and maximum of 6 competitors entered.

The competitors may be in any of the 3 divisions. The scores will be combined from all of the hands on competitions. Gel, acrylic, soak off, salon style and stiletto.

The top 3 scores from each team will be used to make the total score. It is free to enter a team.

Submitted Nail Art

Division I

For competitors who have never placed 1st in any *Submitted Nail Art competitions at any Internationally recognized competition in Division 1.

Division II

For competitors that have placed 1st in any * Submitted Nail Art*at any *Internationally recognized competition division 1, and 2nd or 3rd. In division 2.

Division III

For competitors that have placed 1st in any * Submitted Nail Art*at any *Internationally recognized competition in division 2 & 3

*Submitted Nail Art

Any competition where the work is done prior to the competition and turned in to be judged or is put onto a model for display.

Internationally Recognized Competitions

All competitions that are not a distributor or brand name competition. A competition wherein 50% of the judges come from another country where the competition was located.

Proof of division should be provided for all competitors when ask.

Proof of division must be provided for all competitors when they complete their registration.

The competitor is responsible for registering in the correct division and must demonstrate that the division in which they are registered is correct. The organization requires that the competitor provided evidence that they have entered the correct division.

A competitor will be automatically disqualified if they have intentionally or recklessly registered in the wrong division to which they actually belong.